Canadians Serve in Afghanistan 2001-2014

The United Nations, NATO, and ISAF provided support to stabilizing Afghanistan after the fall of the Taliban. Beginning in October 2001, Canadian ships would see ongoing duty in the waters off the region supporting and defending the international fleet operations. The Aurora patrol aircraft and Polaris transport planes of the Canadian Forces Air Command were also active in Afghanistan. Later there would be transport planes, helicopter squadrons, and fighter jets. Canadian soldiers started arriving in December 2001 with a group of commandos from the elite Joint Task Force, followed by other soldiers in January 2002 stationed in Kandahar. In the summer of 2003, more than 700 Canadian Forces members were stationed in Kabul. Task Forces were developed, and the mission changed to focus on Kandahar in 2005. Canada's combat roles ended in 2011 and shifted back to Kabul in supporting training and stabilization of the Afghanistan Military and Police Forces.

The Canadian Mission was finished in March 2014.

More than 40,000 Canadian Military personnel served in Afghanistan. Several Canadians have earned the Star of Military Valour for their distinguished and brave service. Canada's efforts in Afghanistan have made a difference, but this has come at a great cost. Sadly, 158 Canadian Armed Forces members died in the cause of peace and freedom in Afghanistan.

A Local Hero - Corporal Andrew Grennon

Cpl. Andrew Grennon, or G-Man, as he was affectionately referred to by his comrades, was a light-hearted 23-year-old who made friends wherever he went. After his basic training he joined the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Light Infantry Battle Group at the ripe age of 19. His first tour of duty in Afghanistan was in 2006. Throughout his first tour, Cpl. Grennon saw humanity in the communities he spent time in and became a supporter of those who sought peace despite the injustice around them. During his second tour in 2008 he received a Canadian Expeditionary Force Commander's Commendation Award for bravery by preventing a local riot and saving the lives of two soldiers. On September 3, 2008, near the end of his second tour, he was killed in action. Thousands lined the streets of Windsor during his funeral procession. He was laid to rest at Heavenly Rest Cemetery. Our cherished local hero who died in the cause of providing freedom and security to the people of Afghanistan.

The Tan Coloured Canadian Flag

The emblazoned names on the tan-coloured Canadian flag are those 158 Canadians who gave the supreme sacrifice in protecting the rights and freedoms of the Afghanistan people. Many Afghanistan people served alongside the Canadians to develop their right to autonomy and the freedom that most countries in the world enjoy. Throughout the history of our country, we have many times come to the aid of those in need around the world. Their sacrifice was not in vain!

Tom's Irish Humour Page

An Irish Limerick, or two, or three...

At times I'm so mad that I'm hopping.
My angriness sets my veins popping.
I yell and I curse,
With swearwords diverse,
But my wife does much worse: she goes shopping".

There was a young lady named Harris,
Whom nothing could ever embarrass,
Till the bath salts one day
In the tub where she lay
Turned out to be plaster of Paris.

There once was a man from Nantucket,
(no not that one)
Who kept all his cash in a bucket.
His daughter, named Nan.
Ran away with a man,
And as for the bucket, Nantucket.

An Englishman, a Scotsman, and an Irishman each order a Guinness in a pub. Upon being served, each finds a fly in their beer. Repulsed, the Englishman sends his back. The Scotsman gently flicks the fly out of his mug and begins drinking. The Irishman carefully lifts the fly up by its wings and screams, "Spit it out! Spit it out!"

Walking into the pub, Patrick said to the bartender: "Pour me a stiff one, Sean. I just had another tiff with the little woman." "Oh yeah?" said Sean. "And how did this one end?" "Well, I'll tell ya now when it was over," Patrick replied, "herself came to me on her hands and knees, she did." "You don't say? Now that's a switch! What did she say?" She said, "Come out from under that bed, you gutless weasel!"

McQuillan sat in a bar and began ordering martinis, each time taking the olives out and putting them in a jar. When the jar was filled with olives and all the drinks consumed, he got up and headed towards the bar's door. "Sir, excuse me," said a customer, "What was that all about?"

"Nothing," said the Irishman, "my wife just sent me out for a jar of olives."

Paddy visited the doctor and received disturbing news. "I'm sorry lad," the doctor said. "I can't be certain about the problem. It must be the drink." "That's ok Doc," said Paddy. "I'll come back when you've sobered up!"

The phone rings and Father O'Reilly answers. An official voice on the other end of the line says: "Is this Father O'Reilly?" "It is." "This is the CRA. Will you please help us?" "I'll try." "Do you know a Seamus O'Doul?" "I do." "Does he attend your church?" "He does." "Did he make a large donation to your church?" "He will."

An Irishman was flustered not being able to find a parking space in the parking lot of a large mall. "Lord," he prayed "I can't stand this. If you open a space up for me, I swear I'll give up drinking me whiskey, and I promise to go to church every Sunday." Suddenly the clouds parted, and the sun shone on an empty parking spot. Without hesitation the man said "Never mind! I found one!"

We have the perfect recipe for Irish stew: Get meat, a few potatoes and a lot of Guinness Stout. Drink all of the stout. Forget about the stew.

Finnegan is drunk as usual. He walks into the church and goes straight to the confessional box. There is silence. The priest waits for Finnegan to start talking. He waits and waits. Finally, the priest pounds on the wall of the confessional box. "Ain't no use in knocking," Finnegan yells back. "There is no paper on this side, either!"

IRISH TOASTS

May you have food and rainment.

A soft pillow for your head

May you be many years in heaven

Before the devil knows your dead!

"May your troubles be less and your blessings be more. And nothing but happiness come through your door."

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Ten years ago this month, I returned from my last overseas mission. In many foreign countries, I saw the dedication and proud service of fellow Canadians. It was this last mission that ended a 40-year career in the Infantry, that had the most profound personal effect. I was stationed in Kabul Afghanistan and had the honour of serving there from June 2013 until near the end of February 2014. I met many Afghanistan people who simply wanted to live in freedom, not under tyranny, and enjoy their culture and faith. One of the most profound and emotionally moving experiences was to witness the homemade sweaters, mittens, and socks that were sent to orphans living in Afghanistan. We had the pleasure of delivering them to many young people during the winter. They were made by Canadian wives or mothers whose husbands or sons were killed in action in Afghanistan – yet they gave to honour their dignity of service for those in need! We did our best to plant the seeds of peace and show fellow human beings how Canadians help others.

In becoming a member of the Royal Canadian Legion, I learned more about what this wonderful organization does across this Country to help Veterans and their families. I have witnessed outstanding support for our nation's youth. I have seen senior leadership in the Legion represent our serving troops and fight for the rights of military personnel. Our Branch does extraordinary work for our community. With over 250,000 Legion members, we are a powerhouse that demonstrates citizenship, loyalty, and love of community and country. We proudly welcome everyone who lives in this fair country to join us and be part of this marvelous experience. Encourage your family, friends, neighbors, and colleagues to join and support this fantastic organization. Stand up and volunteer! Be part of a winning team. For those who are, thank you for your service!

When you see a Veteran – thank them. When you see a family member of a Veteran – also thank them and remember the loneliness and concern they had / have when their loved ones are in harm's way.

We have a proud Canadian History – Lest We Forget!

Comrade Morris

TREASURER'S REPORT

The month of January proved to be very interesting for Legion Branch 594.

We did have a lot of expenses, and our patronage was also down.

I attribute this to the spending done for Christmas, and the people heading south for the winter, which all helped in bringing our bar income down with it. Because of this we had to unfortunately take a loss for the month.

On the brighter side, we are looking for a better February report once all facts and figures are available.

Thank You All for helping to keep Branch 594 going in a forward motion.

Yours in Comradeship, John Antaya, Treasurer

A letter from the New Horizons for Seniors Grant program advising of our successful application for funding. More details to follow.

And, thanks to all of the regular supporters of these fundraising dinners along with the volunteers who make them successful.

Our Cadet Corps Marksmanship Team placed Second overall in the Zone air rifle shooting competition held on Feb 24th. One of our junior Cadets, Cpl. Brown, placed second overall in the individual competition. Well Done to all of our champion shooters!

A big thank you to everyone that supported our Winter fundraising campaign by purchasing chocolate bars and pepperoni sticks. This money will be used to fund our year end trip to Canada's Wonderland.

Our Cadets will be participating in a Canadian Armed Forces familiarization day at the Tilton Armoury in Windsor on March 2nd. A field training exercise will be held on the weekend of Mar 22-24 at Camp Henry inside Point Pelee National Park.

2715 Cadet Corps requested approval to install a commemorative plaque recognizing their 50th anniversary at Branch 594 in the front garden area. The request was approved at the Feb 27th Legion membership meeting.

Thank you for your ongoing support of our Cadet Corps.

SENIORS COMMITTEE

At our last Senior Committee meeting of January 25/24, we discussed the lack of attendance during these winter months, although there were some new faces in the crowd. Several regulars are snowbirds and spend from 2-4 months in warmer climate. We do expect the numbers to change in the coming month.

Our Valentine celebration on February 12th went well. We had asked that we Flood the dance floor with RED and the patrons did not fail to do so. It was great to see. Daryl Muscat stepped in to DJ and did a wonderful job. Kensington Court was also present with a beautiful door prize to give away and sponsorship for the DJ.

Kensington have been very generous with their giveaways lately. THANKS

A delicious dinner was served to approximately 85 patrons with 23 staying for the dance only. Our drink special of Strawberry daiquiri (sign at the bar with price) did not go over very well, but in the future, we need the cooperation of the bartenders on duty to help promote this idea.

At our next committee meeting of February 29, we will discuss further other themed dances planned for the next few months. Eg: St Patrick's Day, Caribbean Day, Senior Prom and Beach Party.

We have several sponsorships for the remaining year, 7 from Kensington Court and 2 from Season's Retirement.

Every other week Free dinner draw to all who attend is also ongoing, with appreciation from the crowd.

We look forward to your views, wishes and advice. If you wish to join the committee, please contact Sue or Beth

Branch 594 has been approved to work BINGOs beginning in April

After receiving approval from the Town of Lakeshore to qualify to work Bingos at the Power Play Gaming Centre (PPGC) at 446 Advance Blvd., we have now received confirmation from the PPGC that our Branch will be scheduled to work bingos beginning in April.

We have been actively recruiting volunteers to work Bingos on behalf of our Branch over the past few weeks and to date have received 14 people who have agreed to volunteer in this capacity.

An email has been sent to those 14 folks with a link to on-line training which is mandatory to complete before anyone can be scheduled to work. The training takes approximately 30 minutes to complete. Even if you have already taken on-line training for bingos in the past, if you are volunteering for our Branch, you MUST take this training again. Once the training is completed an electronic confirmation of this completion is sent to our bingo representative, who will in-turn forward the confirmation to me for record keeping.

To be able to work bingos as a revenue stream for the Branch is a wonderful opportunity. It will allow us to support other groups who come to us for financial assistance without using revenue from our general account. We will also be seeking approval from the Township to allow us to use some bingo revenue for Branch maintenance expenses.

Typically, charities are scheduled to work 3- two hours sessions per month, with 2 volunteers at each session. And, for 6 man-hours per month our Branch could receive upwards of $2000 per month. This is a wonderful opportunity, even though it is a bit of a distance away from our Branch, the PPGC is the gaming centre that is accepting new charities. It is understood that there is a ten-year waiting list for any Windsor charities.

We continue to recruit volunteers so if anyone is interested, please contact Veronica Friesen at vlfriesen59@gmail.com.

What does a Bingo Volunteer do?

In “the old days” volunteers sold Bingo cards, did cleanup and most anything the players asked. Today all money, setup and major cleaning is handled by the Bingo operator staff.

Volunteers’ welcome players as they arrive, remove discarded Bingo sheets (ask player first if its ok to remove) and remove empty food and beverage containers. The Bingo hall also has a slot machine gaming area, and volunteers typically wipe down games after customers are done and straighten chairs for the next customer.

BAR REPORT

We have hired 2 new part-time bar stewards, and they are currently doing their necessary training.

We would like to welcome Jen and Cynthia to our staff and please welcome them when you see them.

We are in the process of implementing a new point of sale system in the lounge and banquet hall and are hopeful will have the new system up and running in the next week.

With March upon us, we are looking forward to celebrating St Patrick’s Day and Good Friday with all of you. We expect a full house for both days so get there early.

Look for special pricing on our new draft on tap. We have added Laker Lager too!

POPPY

As of Jan. 31, 2024, we accumulated $8.32 in interest to give us a balance of $98,784.68.

The 2023 Branch Status Poppy Report was reviewed, signed off and sent to Ontario Command.

I created a spreadsheet tallying all monies that were collected from the various Poppy Coin Boxes & other areas i.e. Costco, Walmart, Zehrs, Tap Boxes, Starbucks, etc. The spreadsheet was sent to all Coin Box Volunteers & the President. The result was a much better accounting of funds, with only around $700 that we could not determine which location it had come from compared to nearly $5,000 just a year ago.

The following recommendations for contributions were presented and recommended by membership at the Feb 27th General Meeting..

Once Command approval is received these will be presented at the District A Convention in April.
